

12-0009-EN-Which versions of Shopfactory support Intern...

Author:
ShopFactory

Created On: 05 May 2007 12:00 AM

International support

If you sell online, you can have customers from all around the world. The easier you make buying for them, the better your sales will be. ShopFactory has all the tools you need to sell to customers all around the world.

Light
Pro
Gold

Multi-language editor. The ShopFactory shop builder comes in a number of different languages, including English, Spanish, German, Dutch, French and Italian.

Create shops in any language. ShopFactory comes with more than 30 languages pre-set to make shop creation easy in any language.

Navigation in multiple languages. Let your customers navigate your shop in the language of their choice (does not include translation of shop content). #

Multi-language support. Create shops in multiple languages #

Translation editor #

XLIF XML translation support for exporting and importing translation data #

Only translate what you want. Switch off pages or products you don't want to translate on a per language basis or use the main language to be displayed for all non-translated items. #

Automatic customer language detection. #

Multi-Currency support

Automatic currency conversion for product prices and totals in shop

Supports taxes for any country, state or region, different taxes for different regions, multiple taxes per product.

International shipping calculation support – set different prices and cost calculation methods for different regions.

International payment methods support - supports payment methods all around the world *

* These functions may require a GlobeCharge account. Some GC Services require payment of additional fees.

These functions require seperate Add-On module.