

5-0005-EN-What are Website maps?

Author:
ShopFactory

Created On: 05 May 2007 12:00 AM

Website Maps

ShopFactory automatically creates a special website map page for search engines, to make it easy for them to index your complete website. When arriving at your website search engines find a simple link to your website map – with all pages listed on it on the same level. This allows search engines to even find pages which you have not directly linked from one of the indexes and to give them the same relevance as all other pages.