Whether you upgrade to ShopFactory Professional or Gold will depend on what type of website maintenance you offer your customers.

ShopFactory now offers you the flexibility to offer your Customers a choice of how you maintain their website.

If you are interested in maintaining your customer's site designs only, then the ShopFactory Professional upgrade may be enough for your needs.

If you are going to maintain the whole website for your customers – design and content – then ShopFactory Gold is the product that best suits your needs.

ShopFactory Gold is Pro's big brother, featuring many extra capabilities to help you get more sales. Gold also allows you to create unlimited stores and in any language, making it also a great solution for website developers. ShopFactory Pro and Gold require Microsoft Windows.
